

Dr. György Morovján

*Head of Patent Department
Egis Pharmaceuticals Plc*

Dr. György Morovján serves as Head of Patent Department at Egis Pharmaceuticals Plc since 2019. His main responsibility is the organization and coordination of the IP activities related to technical solutions developed or utilized at Egis, with special emphasis to patents. He is responsible for IP support of R+D, commercial and business development efforts of the Company. He participates in the IP education within the Company.

Before his appointment, Dr. Morovján has been Deputy Head of IP Department of Egis since 2008.

Dr. Morovján has been qualified as Hungarian Patent Attorney in 2007 and completed the European Qualifying Examination before the European Patent Office in 2017.

Dr. Morovján has joined Egis in 2000 as a research associate. His work related to pharmacokinetic studies of generic drugs and original drug candidates, as well as research in drug metabolism. He has worked at the IP Department from 2002 as patent attorney candidate.

Dr. Morovján has been graduated from the University of Technology, Budapest as chemical engineer in 1991. He received his PhD in 2000 in the field of bioanalytical chemistry.

Dr. Morovján is member of LES Hungary, Hungarian Association for the Protection of Industrial Property and Copyright (MIE) and AIPPI Hungarian Group.